Flower Mound Library
3030 Broadmoor Ln., Flower Mound, TX
972-874-6200 or Website

Buzzing Bumblebees: Geared toward children who are not yet walking, this class will encourage babies to explore the world of language and develop motor skills through books, songs, rhymes and related activities. Mondays at 9:30am and Tuesdays at 11am.

Wiggly Walkers: A new class designed for "new walkers" (those who are just starting to walk and still require some assistance) up to the age of two. Wiggly Walkers encourages tots to build early literacy skills through music, books, and rhyme. Wednesdays at 9:30 am and Thursdays at 11am.

Romping Rhymers: Two- and three-year-olds will have a rollicking time reading, singing, and dancing while continuing to build literacy skills. Wednesdays at 11am and Thursdays at 9:30am.

Leaping Learners: Children ages three to five will share books, sing songs, and develop group listening skills in this class designed as a launch pad to reading. Mondays at 11am and Tuesdays at 9:30am.

Get the scoop on the weekly storytime schedule and monthly programs HERE.

Registration for Weekly Programs:

Registration is required. All classes will be offered in person only and will have limited attendance. Attendance is managed through an entry pass system. Passes are available upon request at the Youth Services Desk beginning 30 minutes before the start of the program, until all passes have been distributed. Passes can only be picked up in person; phone requests to hold passes cannot be accommodated. Please visit the children's programs page on the library website for additional information, including age recommendations and tips for successful participation.

Grab-and-Go Crafts

For elementary age kids. Pick up a craft kit while supplies last! Kits will contain most of the required materials. Other common items, such as scissors, glue, and crayons or markers, will not be provided. Craft kits are first-come, first-served.

Printables, when available, will be linked on the Grab-and-Go crafts page when all kits are claimed.
